GUARANTEED FOR LIFE

INTRODUCING JACOB'S PRIDE, BUILT AND GUARANTEED TO LAST A LIFETIME.

Jacob Vollrath wasn't big on compromise.

For 130 years, Vollrath has set the standard for designing and manufacturing professional, world-class quality food service products. And now, we've raised the bar again with our newest line:

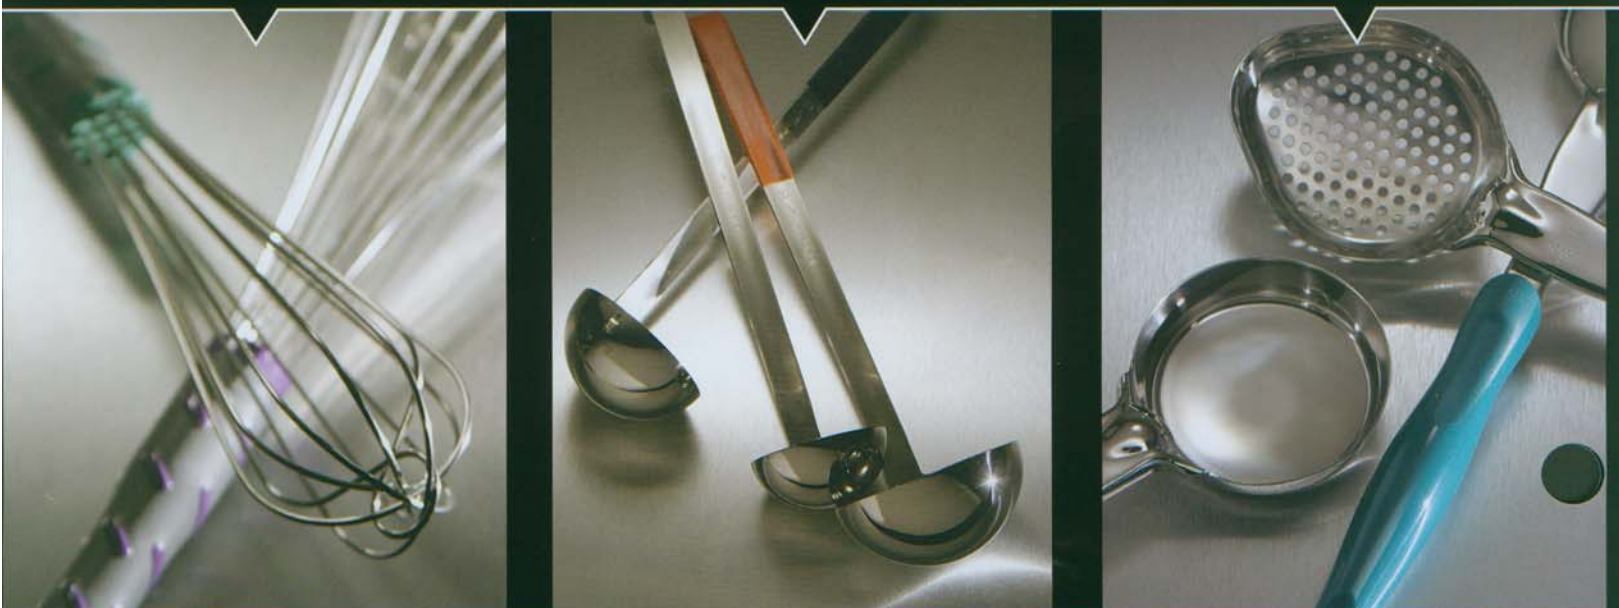

Jacob's Pride. These professional kitchen tools follow perfectly in the Vollrath tradition of innovation and endurance. Every product is so tough, that we are standing behind the entire line with a lifetime warranty.

Exceptional durability is the result.

Jacob's Pride products are engineered and tested to deliver maximum performance and exceptional durability. Go ahead. Put Jacob's Pride utensils and cookware to the test. We're confident that even in the busiest kitchens, they can handle anything you dish out. Serving after serving. Day after day. Year after year.

Jacob's Pride is a stellar example of the Vollrath dedication to quality and promise to deliver unmatched customer satisfaction.

And that's something we take a lot of pride in.

The Vollrath Story

Jacob would be proud. It was over a century ago that Jacob J. Vollrath first set the standard as a pioneer in the enameling industry. Since 1874, Vollrath has been recognized as a world-class manufacturer and supplier of top-quality smallwares and light equipment to the foodservice industry.

The founding promise all those years ago was to manufacture professional kitchen tools that would last a lifetime. Today, Vollrath continues this vision by providing efficient, cost-effective new products, systems and services to foodservice operations all over the world. Constant innovation and customer focus allow Vollrath to continue setting the standard, with every tool, and every promise.
